Crops fine everywhere.

Dunlap Scott is candidate for Congress.

Judge James Milner, of Cartersville, dead.

Bartow county has shipped 20,000 bushels of wheat.

Mrs Lindner, of Savannah, a penitentiary bird, escaped.

The North and South Railroad and Savannah and Memphis Railroad are both progressing. On the 10th the former, at Liberty Hill, took in $21,000 subscriptions. Forty miles of the latter are built.

The Augusta Constitutionalist, Savannah Republican, Columbus Enquirer, Columbus Sun and Macon Telegraph are all in favor of the lease of the State Road standing as the very best disposition that can be made of that property. The question of fraud, they say, is a personal question that should not affect the lease, but mete the punishment of the law upon the guilty men.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

A SECRET DISCLOSED.

Tammany Ratifies Greeley and Brown.

Attempt to Assassinate the King and Queen of Spain.

Financial and Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19.—A person signing himself J. T. Pickett, Confederate States Diplomatic Agent, near the government of Mexico, publishes a long letter explaining his connection with a transaction whereby the United States paid seventy-five thousand dollars.

Picket claims to have acted merely as attorney. He says the documents consist of the entire archives of the department of State of the Confederate States—nothing more or less—without the abstraction of a single piece. The secret service vouchers, by which many persons of little note, however, this side of the lines might have been compromised, did not leave Richmond with those more public papers, but were faithfully and honorably destroyed by Mr. Benjamin the day of the evacuation. Had any such papers come into my possession, I should have been burned at the stake sooner than deliver them even to the common government. Thus I do not perceive that anybody is hurt, and there is but one paper the perusal of which gave me any pain—the Hon. Jacob Thompson's report of the operations on the frontier, etc., the existence of which was unknown to me until the officer with whom I lately went to Canada found it, as he would certify if called upon. It was too late then to recede, nor could I have been induced to falsify history by destroying it. And here follows a curious episode. Knowing that the documents exhibited the fact that Mr. Thompson had a very large amount of Confederate States gold in his possession at the time of the collapse, which gold has "gone where the woodbine twineth," I went a long journey last summer to see him, and out of abundant kindness told him of the fact that such papers were extant. He would not be convinced, saying Mr. Benjamin had told him everything of the kind had been destroyed; and I dare say he was so informed, and believed this, it being the one of Willy, in order to share in the plunder aforesaid.

Now, inasmuch as the Confedate Government was indebted to the writer in the amount of at least fifty thousand dollars of that gold on liquidated account, he (the writer) felt virtuously indignant that Messrs. F. and B. should have gobbled it all by Mr. Thompson's permission. I afterwards addressed him on the subject, in the hope that he would make an effort to secure the entire mass of documents, but he treated my letter with offensive silence. Now the publication of his report will doubtless cause him, with Jeff Davis and J. P. Benjamin, to feel uncomfortable for a little while; but as I expect to go to neither of them when I die my sympathy shall not be of a heart rending character, especially as they have all three treated me badly enough in my time and thus I am, albeit, the instrument of the execution of a sort of a poetic justice upon them. The letter does no credit to the author, the federal government or the meritorious parties who owned the documents, and there are parties here who question the truthfulness of some of the details.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Tammany ratifies Greeley and Brown.

TERRE HAUTE, IND., July 19.—Voorhees in addressing his constituents upon accepting the congressional nomination gave a hearty adherence to the action of the Baltimore Convention.

MADRID, SPAIN, July 19, 4 a. m.—At midnight last night the carriage of the King and Queen was fired upon by a party of assassins. The King and Queen, who were the only occupants of the carriage, escaped uninjured. One of the assassins was killed by an attendant, and two were captured. The Royal family are now at the palace receiving the congratulations of the populace upon their escape.

The tranquility of the city was undisturbed, although when accounts of the affair began to be generally circulated there was much excitement. Crowds gathered in the neighborhood where the attack had been made, and by 4 o'clock in the morning almost the entire population of Madrid was hastening through the streets. Their enthusiasm remained self-possessed during the scene of excitement which ensued upon the attack and brief conflict with the assassins. When quiet had been in a measure restored, they proceeded to the palace where they now are receiving members of the ministry, the civil and military authorities of the city, of deputations from the people of all classes. All are enthusiastic in rejoicing over the failure of the murderous attack.

Call for State Democratic Convention

ATLANTA, GA., June 26, 1872.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the State, held this day, it was resolved, that a Convention of the Democratic party be held in the city of Atlanta, on Wednesday, the 24th day of July next, at 12 o'clock M., in the Capitol building, in Atlanta, for the purpose of nominating an Electoral Ticket, and a candidate for Governor. Counties will be entitled to the usual representation.

JULIAN HARTRIDGE, Chairman.

Correspondents.

Our correspondents must bear patiently with us. We are very crowded with legislative matter. The commencement accounts shall come as soon as we get space.

Voorhees.

Voorhees has been renominated for Congress, accepted the nomination and in his speech of acceptance given a hearty adherence to Greeley.

☞ The Augusta Chronicle says it's reported, that Wm. Johnston, President of Charlotte and Augusta Railroad, has resigned, and R. R. Bridges, President of Wilmington and Augusta Road, will be his successor.

☞ Governor John M. Palmer, of Illinois, says: "We are going to elect old Horace Greeley to the Presidency. I am not for 'anybody to beat Grant.' I am for anybody to elect Greeley; and in that spirit I give my hand to the strongest Democrat of you all."

Judge Parrott.

The bar of the Cherokee court, at Bartow county, passed complimentary resolutions in honor of Judge Parrott, late deceased, and the court adjourned a day in tribute to his memory.

The writer practiced for four years in the circuit during Judge Parrott's incumbency. He possessed excellent administrative ability, and made a good judge. He despatched business untiringly. He kept fine order, and maintained thoroughly the dignity of the court. He administered criminal law rigidly.

Our New Building.

On the 15th instant we pulled up the last stakes and deposited the entire establishment in THE CONSTITUTION building. The removal occupied some five or six days, it being necessary to take engine and presses to pieces. But we are glad to state that no issue of the paper was missed, either daily or weekly. Irregularities there doubtless have been, and our friends will cheerfully overlook them. The removal was at great expense, but we are repaid by comforts and conveniences seldom enjoyed in a newspaper office. In a few days we shall be entirely fitted up. In the meantime we shall go to work with renewed energy for the instruction and entertainment of our host of readers.

Explained.

Our cotemporary, the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel, took strong umbrage at a short editorial declining to indorse a part of the ninth Cincinnati resolution. THE CONSTITUTION never takes a position without mature thought and deliberate purpose, and hence it is never called upon to shift position. In justice to the Chronicle we, copy its article, headed "Not on the line of THE CONSTITUTION."

SUSCEPTIBLE OF WRONG CONSTRUCTION.

An editorial article which appeared in our issue of yesterday, under the captoin, "Not on the Line of THE CONSTITUTION," is susceptible of a construction which does not reflect the views of the editors of the Chronicle and Sentinel, to-wit: an indorsement of each and every plank in the Cincinnati platform. Such an interpretation by no means accords with our position. Nor was the article intended to be so construed; its sole object being to discourage discussion now of a matured plan of attack, ordered by a general in the field, by subalterns who participated in the council of war. It is proper to add, in this connection, that the article was not written by either of the political editors of the Chronicle and Sentinel, but appeared during their absence.

The State School Commissioner's Report on Public Schools.

The report of State Commissioner, Gustavus J. Orr, is able. The teachers of last year have not been paid. Bullock gobbled the school money out of the Treasury under the act of July 20, 1870, as fast as it came in, depositing his rag bonds in their place to the amount of $368,000. At this point he became inspired with the worthlessness of his bonds and the farcicality of the arrangement, and he grabbed and scattered the money without any little unnecessary comedy of putting his paper stuff in its place.

The teachers worked faithfully, and Mr. Orr urges their payment, and we back him in it. He proposes good bonds to be substituted for Bullock's tainted rags.

The full debt he has not ascertained, but is after it.

He urges changes in the present law. He needs a clerk for himself. County Boards should settle disputes with right of appeal to the State Commissioner and State Board. Half the rental of the State Road should go to education, or half the net receipts if it changes management. The County Boards should have the power of local taxation, levied by the voluntary action of the people.

We shall notice this report hereafter.

We take a deep interest in this matter of free schools. Mr. Orr is the right man in the right place. With the law properly amended and his hands unfettered, we shall look for substantial results of the broadest good.

Report on the Lunatic Asylum.

Dr. J. F. Bozeman and Dr. Wm. H. Cumming, appointed by Governor Smith under a resolution of the Legislature to examine the management of the Lunatic Asylum, have made a startling report.

Dr. Bozeman reports that the three trustees of the asylum have endeavored faithfully to do their duty. Dr. Cummines says the great mismanagement of the institution is due to them. They had all power, and therefore could have remedied matters.

Dr. Bozeman says the books are correctly kept, and no unfaithfulness is probable, but a better system of accountability should prevail, and a higher standard of management and work should be reached in all the departments. The working force of the Asylum is 85, including four doctors, and costing $28,497. The custom has long been, and a bad one it is, to allow rations to all the agents, and employees, their families, servants and horses. This item alone amounts to $11,147 95. Mules hired to haul wood at a per diem received forage. Thus of $90,000 yearly to maintain the Asylum, 45 per cent. is consumed in paying and supporting the 85 officers and employees, leaving, after the fuel-tobacco, liquor and repairs are paid for, less than one-half of the annual appropriation for the subsistence and clothing of the nearly 400 patients. This is certainly a bad showing.

The chief resident physician should have rations for his family and servants, on account of his great expenses, Dr. Bozeman thinks, but the others should not.

There are four doctors and two stewards. He thinks three doctors and one steward enough. The wife of the resident physician is matron. While he compliments the present matron, he thinks she should not be an asylum physician's wife. Discipline forbids it.

Dr. Bozeman thinks the organic law of the asylum should be remodeled. This asylum should not be enlarged, as it is too big already, but another institution built in the up country.

During the past year nearly $90,000 have been spent in the new building, and $15,000 or $20,000 will soon be needed in repairs.

Dr. Cumming reports with entire unfavorableness. He says neither the adjacent nor enclosed grounds show improvement, save three acres in front, which are an ornament.

The rest of the grounds are encumbered and rough and the sewers discharge their fetid contents so near the buildings as to pollute the air.

The old buildings are out of repair, and the new ones, while solid, are unornamented and not very suitable. The enlargement of the institution he disapproves. There are two recreation courts, and should be numbers of them. Idiots and epileptics should not be admitted to the institution. Fuel is difficult to get. He recommends coal. The garden is ill chosen and its cultivation superficial. Vegetables are needed. The dairy is a failure, the cows averaging less than three quarts a day.

The four doctors are too many. Dr. Cumming found an absence of order in this department. No case books are kept. The want of order marks the drug department. No prescription books, no books showing disposition of the $2,000 of medicine. In 1871 515 gallons of spirits were used. He wonders where it went.

The center building is occupied by four households of three physicians and stewards, numbering over forty. This room should be given to reading, sewing and school purposes. Dr. Cumming suggests that the married officers should reside near the Asylum and take turns on duty.

The Asylum is badly ventilated, the air tainted with untrapped sewers, the floors, walls, ceilings and casings dirty and infested with vermin, and the bedding and apparel were soiled. The laundry is out of repair.

The rations were deficient in flour and vegetables. The corn meal in April was coarse, ill-bolted, and unfit for use. The Asylum had no skilled baker or trained cook. The meals are given twice a day, at 9 and 3 in summer, and 10 and 4 in winter, and are, therefore, infrequent as well as ill-cooked and insufficient.

Thirty-nine rooms fitted for lunatics are otherwised used, by attendants, and for clothes and store rooms. There is no infirmary. No religious service was held on the Sabbath, only sermon on Wednesday. The dead are buried without religious rites, in the woods with no stones or fence. Dr. Cumming saw nothing to commend but the lawn. He mentions items of expense, such as, $1,182 60 for traveling expenses; $408 60 feed of two mules while hauling; $131 51 feed of private horse six months, and others which he considers questionable.

Of course it is not right to pass judgment until the managers of the institution have a hearing.

Senator Stockton, of New Jersey, Who Resisted Greeley's Nomination Says Democrats Must Unite in The Sacred Duty of Electing Greeley.

Senator Stockton, of New Jersey, was a delegate to the Baltimore Convention. He voted against the platform, and against Greeley. He has come out in a letter urging that the support of Greeley since his nomination by the Democracy, is a "sacred duty." He adds another instance to the list of the staunch Democratic spirits who opposed Mr. Greeley while the conference was open, who, as a matter of duty, rally to the party and work for its programme since the conference is over. He puts the point well, He says duty to his country, to the Constitution, to individual liberty, to local self-government, to civil authority, to reform, all endangered by Grant's re-election, binds him to support Greeley's election as the means to secure these things.

If we could be shown any good to be accomplished by a different course we might heed. But as the party has determined to take Greeley, a dissent by a small minority can only thwart the will of the majority without giving success to the views of the minority. The minority will not only defeat the majority but defeat themselves, and by their disaffection put the enemy in power. The simple result of Democratic disaffection is not the success of the straight Democracy, but the defeat of all Democracy and the triumph of Radicalism.

It shall never be said of us that we even indirectly contributed to the success of Grant and his despotic myrmidons as the leaders of centralized tyranny. We will not be an obstacle to the success of our great party of constitutionalism.

Therefore, we heartily approve of the following words of the able and patriotic Democratic New Jerseyman, Senator Stockton:

Now, sir, since the high court of the party has spoken, there can be no difference of opinion among Democrats. Party usage, as well as the higher considerations of patriotism, will unite the Democrats of New Jersey as one man on their nominee; and I doubt not that New Jersey will cast her vote in the electoral college for Horace Greeley.

Until his nomination by the convention it was my plain duty to oppose him and vote for a Democrat—now it is my duty to the imperilled liberty of my country; to the constitution which I am bound to protect against its violators; to individual liberty, which has been destroyed by forced constructions of the amendments to the constitution; to the great fundamental doctrine of local self-government, violated in all the States; to the freedom of elections; to the supremacy of the civil over the military power; to the cause of reform against the universal corruption surrounding the present administration—to use all honorable means in my power to defeat the re-election of Grant by securing the election of Horace Greeley. I trust and believe that those Democrats like myself, who have abstained from any movement outside of the party organization, will now unite as one man in this sacred duty, and show that the old Democratic party can still, as heretofore, make a sacrifice of all prejudice and passion, and can join with all patriotic citizens in a determined effort to preserve at least such liberty as has been left to us by the usurpations of the Republican Congressional caucus and the military power.

I am, very truly, yours,
JOHN P. STOCKTON.

A Large Beet.

Mrs. W. L. Rowland sent us last week a beet which weighed six pounds, and was about two feet in circumference. Now if any person in this beat can beat that beet we confess that they are hard to beat at the business of raising beets. The aforesaid mammoth beet would make us a fine mess if we had a pot large enough to boil it in. We suppose, however, that we can roast it, and manage it in that way. We thank the kind and much esteemed donor for the present. Cartersville Standard.

Fulton can beat that beet. Mrs. Colonel W. Boyd, of Atlanta, has sent us a beet weighing six and a half pounds. She lives in the "rhubarbs" of Atlanta, as Mrs. Partington calls "suburbs," and she has a garden full of just such beets.

The Stampede.

S. C. Taber, of the Republican Executive State Committee of New York, has resigned his position on the committee and come out for Greeley. In his letter he says this, which shows the Republican stampede for the Chappaquan:

A large proportion of the Republicans and a great majority of the electors of this district have resolved to vote for Mr. Greeley at the approaching presidential election. Not wishing to occupy a position antagonistic to that of a majority of my Republican friends in the district and being earnestly in favor of the election of Horace Greeley for President, I have to request that you will accept my resignation as a member of the Republican State and Executive Committees. Respectfully yours,

S. C. TABER."

Conciliatory Views and Sentiments of Hon. A. H. Stephens, Addressed to the Georgia Legislature, 1866.

Editors Constitution: Mr. Stephens' speech on the occasion referred to above, contains the following:

"The first step towards local or general harmony is the banishment from our breasts of every feeling and sentiment calculated to stir the discords of the past. Nothing could be more injurious or mischievous to the future of this country than the agitation, at the present, of questions that divided the people anterior to or during the existence of the late war.

With us (in the experiment of secession) it was simply a question as to where our allegiance was due in the maintenance of these principles—which authority was paramount in the last resort, State or Federal. It was with this view and this purpose secession was tried. That has failed.

Another one of our duties is this: We should accept the issues of the war, and abide by them in good faith.

The Constitution of the United States and the treaties and laws made in pursuance thereof are acknowledged to be the paramount law in this whole country.

Let old issues, old questions, old differences and old feuds, be fossils of another epoch. Great, new, living questions are before us. Let it not be said of us, this day of our country's greatest trial and agony, that there was a party for Cæsar, a party for Pompey, and a party for Brutus, but no party for Rome.

But let all patriots, by whatever distinctive name heretofore styled, rally in all sections everywhere to the support of him, be he who he may, who bears the standard with "Constitutional Union" emblazoned on its folds.

Now, after quoting the above remarks from Mr. Stephens' speech of 1866, and after taking in view the almost unanimous vote of the Baltimore Convention in adopting the old constitutional union flag with Horace Greeley as standard bearer, I can see no reason why we should not rally to his support in all sections every where. Horace Greeley has planted himself on the principles of the Union under the Constitution—the right of local self government to be maintained, subject only to the limitations of the Constitution and the laws made in pursuance thereof. His election will secure as a long lease of good government and peace in the Union which is certainly preferable to sectional hatreds and bloody wars.

AD REFERENDUM.

The Question of Congressmen.

Editors Constitution: Among the duties devolving upon the Legislature during the present session is that of redistricting the State into Congressional Districts. So decided are the majorities of the dominant party in most of the counties that there can be no conceivable motive for omitting to redistrict or gerrymandering, unless it be to further the interests of particular aspirants for congressional honors. Of course candidates who may fancy themselves particularly strong or particularly weak in certain counties will desire these counties tacked on to or cut off from their respective districts as interest may suggest.

Add to this that there are fifty or more prominent gentlemen in the State who have no mean opinion of their fitness for the National Legislature, and who do not see why, in the event of their failure to receive a district nomination, their chances to represent the State at large ought not to be decidedly good. These gentlemen will be pregnant with plausible reasons why the people should elect two delegates at large. The manner to get and to hold on to office will cause a powerful effort to be made to prevent or control the redistricting. If the Legislature take a straightforward, honest and patriotic view of the question as it doubtless will, it will not surrender this matter into the hands of the lobby. It is fair to presume that a body of men who have demonstrated that they have the nerve to meet issues and discharge duties with promptness and a comprehensive regard to the public good, will address themselves to this duty without delay or favoritism. We may expect to see nine Congressional Districts mapped out, with reference to compactness, regularity of outline, and the facilities of inter-communication between the counties composing them.

Doubtless the district composing the Northwestern section of the State will be properly arranged, and certainly it will contain quite a number of men who are able and willing to represent it in Congress worthy and well. No doubt the public mind has already begun to canvass the claims and capacities of our prominent men for the position. General Young and his friends ought to see the propriety of his gracefully withdrawing from the field and yielding the contest to other aspirants. The General, when quite a young man, and wholly untried in the fields of legislation and statesmanship, with no qualifications superior to those of a number of other young men in the district, was nominated and elected to the 40th Congress more in compliment to his gallantry as a soldier than from any peculiar fitness for the position. His nomination was his introduction to four-fifths of the people of the District, and his election without serious opposition or any particular enthusiasm was thought to be an empty honor which would be flattering to a young man of generous ambition. Contrary to general expectation he gained admittance into the 40th Congress, and served in it a short while with commendable zeal but with no marked ability. We think it entirely probable, as is the custom, that he enjoyed the emoluments equally with those who served during the whole of the Congress. The General presented his certificate of election for the Fortieth Congress at the opening of the Forty-first Congress, thus seeking to gain admittance into two Congresses by virtue of an election to one. This effort, of course, failed. Under the circumstances, and when the best evidence of one's ability to get into Congress from Georgia at all was the fact that he had once gotten in, the people of the district again honored the General with a second election, this time to two Congresses—the Forty-first and Forty-second. He, with six other gentlemen from Georgia, was admitted into the Forty-first Congress about the heel of its last session. The General, following the fat streak of luck in the matter of Congressional honors and emoluments into which he had fallen and with a sort of penchant for doubling, drew ten thousand dollars, full pay for the 41st Congress, while his less fortunate compeers drew only that amount, the pay for one year. (See Congressional Globe 41st Congress, part 3d, page 1925.) He is now enjoying the honors and emoluments of the 42d Congress. To represent his District in three Congresses and to receive as compensation therefor within a period of four years $90,000, besides mileage and other incidentals, by no means an insignificant item, ought to be quite sufficient to satisfy a man of ordinary ambition. We allude to this extraordinary good luck of the General in no spirit of unkindness to him. We feel kindly towards him. He is a gallant, chivalrous, generous young man, entitled to high respect. We rather rejoice at his good luck, but we think he should, in duty to himself and in justice to others, curb his aspirings. There are numbers of other men in the district, quite as gallant soldiers as he, and possibly less fortunate, and equally deserving of the high honor the General has thrice enjoyed. Occasionally there have arisen men whose resplendent genius, intellectual weight and moral worth have stamped them as born leaders. To such, honors are a conceded birthright. Such men have been few and their race is now very nearly if not quite extinct.

Neither the General himself nor his most ardent friend claims that he is such, and we think no good reason can be assigned why he should enjoy a life estate in the office he now fills, to the exclusion of others, who to say the least, deserve as well of the people as General Young. BARTOW.

Correspondence of Savannah Advertiser.

ATLANTA, July 14, 1872.

Well James was beaten in his own county on yesterday. It may not benefit him to any considerable extent to state the causes of his defeat, but I give them because they make interesting reading.

THE SMITHITES ORGANIZING.

Up to Thursday evening, notwithstanding the fact was known that Smith's friends were organized for a determined effort to carry the county, bets of three and four to one on the James ticket were offered and nobody found bold enough to take them. By noon on Friday, however, the Smith men became more hopeful. It was then rumored that over $3,000 had been subscribed by them for the purpose of beating James, and there seems no doubt that money was liberally distributed among certain men. In addition, a powerful and partially successful effort was made to make the contest not one for the Governorship, but one which would pass judgment upon James for having enforced the laws against the Sunday liquor traffic. Many of the saloon keepers denounced the effort as "too thin," but not a few who had, at various times, been fined for violation of the law determined upon revenge, and worked like Trojans against James.

THE ELECTION.

Nevertheless, even on yesterday morning the friends of James regarded the result as a mere question of the size of their majority. So confident were they that up to ten o'clock not a James carriage was on the street, although from the opening of the polls a large number of Smith carriages were plying to and fro with voters. Then it was that the omens became sinister. It was whispered that a West End man who wanted to go on the James ticket and failed, had "gone back" on his candidate, although he was good for at least forty votes. He never came near the polls thoughout the day, and the West End voters went solid for Smith. Again it was stated that two other persons, disappointed of the honor of places on the ticket, had sold out, and were using their influence at the rolling mill and at the State Road shops against the man they had been hurrahing for forty-eight hours before.

AN EFFORT FOR JAMES.

In spite of lukewarmness, treachery and money, the friends of James made a determined effort at 11 o'clock, and from that hour to fifteen minutes past one polled five-sixths of the votes cast. When the polls temporarily closed to enable the managers to take dinner, James was at least 150 votes ahead, and even the Smith men, not in the secret, gave up the contest. The electioneering was of an extraordinary character. Attorney General Hammond, Solicitor General Glenn, and the officials of the State and county, were in person on the grounds soliciting votes. Printed placards denouncing James were circulated by the Smith party, bogus James tickets were issued by the hundred, and no effort, fair or unfair, was left unemployed to beat him.

BEATEN.

The first indication of coming disaster to James was seen about 2 o'clock, when a body of about thirty men from the rolling mill marched up and voted solidly for Smith. They were soon followed by another, and another, some from the rolling mill and others from the railroad shops, and until half past four o'clock eight votes were cast for Smith to one for James. It was not a matter of personal choice with many of these men; their head men, foremen, or whatever they are called, had been secured (now, it don't matter,) and these voted them as they desired. When the polls closed James was gaining rapidly; but his ticket was beaten. The Smith delegates were elected by an average majority of 192 in a poll of nearly 3,000.

HOW MUCH IT COST.

Of course, as was natural, the Smith men rejoiced greatly over their astonishing success. They serenaded the Governor with a band of music, received his thanks, and returned to their homes highly delighted. This concludes the story of how the county was carried. Whether or not the statement be true of it having cost Smith's friends $3,000 to succeed is a matter for them to decide. I do not make any charge against them, but merely give publicity to the on dit. At the same time I know that very little money was used on the side of James, the best evidence of the fact being the complaints made by his friends last night and to-day on this very subject. They say that they were beaten by money, and that if they had been permitted to use the same they could have carried the county by 500 majority. Fie, fie! I hear some moralist exclaim. My dear sir, pure morals and our politics are antagonistic elements. James, at last, found them so on Saturday.

WHAT WILL HE DO NOW?

What will James do now? That is the question asked every where to-day. I cannot say for I have not seen him to learn. Naturally enough his friends are sore to-day. In spite of the defections of three influential men, who became angry because they could not have everything their own way, the success of the James ticket was never doubted up to two o'clock on Saturday. To-day they are very much exasperated at Smith's speech last night. The Governor is reported as having declared that the success of his ticket was "a triumph of truth and honesty over thieves, bond rings and the power of money." If Governor Smith did use this language it will do him great harm. His most determined partisans admit that there is strong opposition to him throughout the State and he is not likely to gain votes by stigmatising his opponents as "thieves."

JAMES STILL A CANDIDATE.

Monday. A slight attack of vertigo compelled me to end my writing on yesterday, with the foregoing paragraph. To-day I can answer the question, "What will James do?" Not at all disheartened by his failure in this county, which he attributes to his own overweening confidence, he is still in the field and will continue the contest to the end. His more influential supporters, embracing some of the most prominent men in Georgia, are urging him to announce himself as an independent candidate, but although the pressure brought to bear upon him to comply has been great he has thus far declined. What he may do in the future I cannot say; but this much is evident, and it is that James is the pluckiest man that ever appeared prominent in Georgia politics.

RUMORS.

Meantime a thousand rumors are afloat. The Smith men assert that Joe Brown is urging James to run anyhow, promising him his support. Others assert that Joe will himself be a candidate. I cannot trace these reports to any truthful source. However, the Smith men are considerably exercised over them. It is generally believed that if two Democrats run, the struggle will be a fierce and close one, and many people believe that the independent candidate will succeed. In a few days more some fact will be developed out of these rumors. NAPOLEON.

The Chicago Times says: "Never before has been known such a general turning of political fronts as now. Thousands upon thousands of Republicans who voted for Grant are now arraying themselves on the side of Greeley and Brown. This is not the case in isolated States, but in general."

Mr. Purell, Chairman of the Columbus, Ohio, Labor Reform Convention, says that since the declination of Judge Davis and Joel Parker, the candidates of the Labor Reform party, that the representative element of that party will unite on the Cincinnati ticket and give it hearty support.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19.—The following is a summary of the July cotton crop report of the statistician of the Department of Agriculture:

The past month has been generally favorable to cotton. Limited areas have been affected by drought, but rains were quite general during the latter part of June. On the Atlantic coasts showers have been so frequent and heavy since June 20th, as to delay cultivation and promote the growth of weeds and grass. Before that date a season of comparative drought of seven or eight weeks had been suffered in a portion of this district, while other counties represent the weather mainly favorable. The variations in rain fall during the past month has been considerable in the Atlantic States, ranging as follows at the stations reported: From 1 2-10 inches to 4 96-100 in Virginia; from 1 76-100 to 5 49-100 in North Carolina; from 1 4-10 to 3 95-100 in South Carolina; from 1 35-100 to 4 96-100 in Georgia; from 4-10 to 6 units in Florida; from 1 55-100 to 4 89-100 in Alabama. In the States of the Mississippi valley the rain fall has been abundant, the lowest records in the several States being from 2 to 4 inches, and the highest from 4 5-10 to 11; in Tennessee the range is from 2 64-100 inches to 10 63-100; in Louisiana from 4 units 35-100 to 11 units; in Texas from 3 units 2 10 to 6 units 9 10; in Arkansas from 4 units 3-10 to 8 units 2-10. The States making averages lower than 100, the standard of good condition, are Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina, in which the average rain fall in May and June was light, and Arkansas, where injury has resulted from the heavy and unseasonable rains. In all the other States the averages are above one hundred. The figures representing the condition are as follows:

Virginia 96, North Carolina 94, South Carolina 97, Georgia 101, Florida, 102, Alabama 106, Mississippi 109, Louisiana 103, Texas 106, Arkansas 95, Tennessee, 104.

Taking into consideration the relative importance of the States in producing the general average of condition would be about 103. As a whole the July returns of the present year show a higher average of condition than those of any previous reports except in 1868.

Probabilities.—A local storm of some severity is apparently moving north into Louisiana and Alabama. Cloudy weather with numerous local storms is probable for Saturday throughout the Southern and Gulf States. Light winds, cool and pleasant weather will prevail north and east of Ohio. This falling barometer and increasing southerly winds will prevail north of Indiana and the Missouri river.

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 19.—First race, for sweepstakes of fifty dollars each, one thousand dollars added by Association for fillies foaled in 1869, one mile and an eighth. Minie led Woodbine one length on the entering mile as they passed the stand. The race was won by Woodbine beating Minnie a nose, with Nema trailing in a bad third, Sue Snyder a worse fourth, but were placed respectively second and third, Minie being ruled out on account of crossing from the extreme outside, impeding Woodbine on the stretch at the start. Time, 2.06¼. Woodbine was backed at two to one against the others.

Second race, purse one thousand dollars for all ages, three miles. Basset led for two and a half miles, with Littleton lapping him for most of the distance when he opened two clear lengths as they passed the half mile pole, which Littleton closed up again in the last turn, and easily changed Bassett for the lead as he came up the home stretch, Bassett answering gallantly and winning by a couple of lengths. Time, 5.48¾. Third race, purse six hundred dollars for all ages, one mile and a quarter, Tubman won, beating Gray Planet four lengths, with——third of one length behind. Time, 2.18. John Harper says should Longfellow fully recover, and be fit to race again, he would not let him start in another race if he was certain of wining a hundred thousand dollars.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 19.—A collision occurred on the Auburn Branch Central Railroad to-day. The following is a list of the killed and wounded:

Mrs. Miles Cutting, of Railroad Mills, E B. Smith, of Detroit killed.

J. Hawley, and T. H. Harris, of Canandigna, fatally wounded. Several others injured.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 19.—The trial of Shaddock Jones, colored, charged with the intimidation of Simon Cravens, colored, a Liberal Republican, came off before United States Commissioner Best to-day. Six witnesses were examined. Much interest and feeling was exhibited by both political parties. The counsel closed the argument to-night. The Commissioner reserves his decision until court opens to-morrow.

There were four arrests made in the conspiracy against the colored man Cross, and the trial commences at 10 o'clock to-morrow. It is generally believed that all the negroes will be convicted under the Enforcement act.

MATAMORAS, MEXICO, July 19.—Military operations are unimportant owing to the understanding between the forces at Monterey and General Trevino, at Monclava, to await the result of the negotiations at the City of Mexico looking to the pacification of the country without further hostilities.

General Rocha reviewed the government forces recently at Monterey, which were eight thousand strong. He is expected here with an escort to arrange to supply his army from this point.

It is stated by telegraph that communication will shortly be opened to the City of Mexico, there being no obstructions. The line is being rebuilt.

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, July 19.—Great precaution is being taken by those connected with the Board of Arbitration to secure absolute secrecy. With this view the entire party of English representatives refused to go into any society. A number of influential gentlemen of Italy have united in an address to Count Schopis, President of the board, congratulating him upon the part he has taken in the proceedings of that body, and expressing gratification that the dispute between Great Britain and America has been submitted to the decision of a peaceful tribunal.

LONDON, ENG., July 18.—It is reported that the parliament will be prorogued August 10th.

The steamer Hibernia, from Liverpool for Quebec out, takes a party of English settlers, pioneers of a colony, which they propose to establish in Minnesota.

Specials to the London papers say that there was no progress made before the Board of Arbitration at Geneva yesterday. To-day's session lasted from one till four o'clock. All the members were present. To-day was devoted to the question of the responsibility of England, which Tenterden denies.

Court adjourned to Monday.

A SPEECH OF "RETURNING" JUSTICE.—Aldermen A. Leyden yesterday received a letter through the hands of Postmaster Denning, conveying to him the intelligence that a Federal soldier who had plundered his residence in this city during the war and carried off the "gold family Bible that lay on the stand" would return it to him.

The writer seemed to be anxious to get into correspondence with Major Leyden, as he enclosed the letter to one addressed to Postmaster Denning.

Perhaps the anticipated election of Horace had some effect. Here is the letter:

CONWAY, July 13, 1872.

To Mr. Austin Leyden, or any member of his family:

SIR—Nearly eight years ago I was detailed with several other soldiers to remove some furniture from your house in Atlanta. Each one was anxious to secure some relic, and I chose to secure the family Bible. Not knowing but you would like to have it returned, (as it contains the family records and a certificate of baptism) I write you those few lines, and if you wish it returned, if you will send me the money to pay the express charges, I will send it to you. Now that peace blesses our land let us forget the past, for we are all God's children, and liable to err.

Hoping you will answer this immediately, I remain, yours, truly, DANIEL SABIN,

P. S.—Address Daniel Sabin, Fowlersville, Livingston county, Mich.

Addressed to Austin Leyden, Atlanta, Georgia, or any member of his family, or any member of the family of Wm. Herring.

FIRST GRAND CONCERT OF THE BEETHOVEN SOCIETY.—As announced the first grand concert of the Beethoven Society came off at the Kimball House hall on Thursday night. A heavy fall of rain in the early part of the evening prevented hundreds from attending. Yet, despite of the threatening weather and sloppy streets, a fair audience was assembled. It is but justice to the society to remark that on this occasion they could not get up the usual interesting programme in consequence of the absence of some of the lady members, and members of the orchestra, who are North on a visit. The concert was given as a compliment to Miss Annie Simon, the fair cantatrice.

W. A. Haynes sang the ballad; "How I do love thee!"

"Full of all the deep sounds full of feeling
That soft from the lute of some lover are stealing."

Miss Annie Simon sang "come per me sereno" and was loudly encored. Wave after wave of applause rolled over the enthusiastic audience until it reached a perfect furore of delight as she returned and warbled "Mandalina."

Miss Lena Cammerer performed on the piano, by request, the solo "Last Hope." She touches the keys so delicately and softly that one can scarcely recognize them, yet

"What hand can touch them so fine,
Who up the lofty diapason roll,
Such sweet, such sad, such solemn airs divine,
Then let them down again into the soul."

She was warmly applauded, and had to return and play another air.

The Beethoven then sang the chorus, "Joy is Over the Waters Dancing." Miss Simon then sang "The Nightengale's Trill." The notes fell as soft as snow in the sea, melting in the heart as instantly. She was enthusiastically encored, and sang with naivete, "Nothing Else To Do."

The Ave Maria of Gounod—trio for the voice, piano and violin, was grand. Professor Steel on the violin in touching strains "wrung from the covert breast the imprisoned sigh." Miss Cammerer on the piano presided as the goddess of melody itself; Mr. W. F. Peck's sweet, well modulated voice.

"Rose like a steam of well distilled perfumes,
And stole upon the air, that even silence
Was took ere she was aware."

It was a perfect gem.

J. W. Thompson sang the Standard-bearer with great power and beauty. He has a fine voice.

Miss Simon sang a Swiss song with such power that her audience seemed transported to Switzerland and listening to the Mountain echoes. Enthusiastically encored, she sang "Dear home of my father" in a touchingly beautiful manner.

Her voice is well cultivated, but has not yet reached its acme. She created a furore that night in the musical world, and won for herself a host of friends.

The exercises closed with the trio and chorus "Spirit Immortal," Mrs. Peck, W. H. Patterson, and Mr Thompson assisting the Society. It was rendered with fine effect and was loudly applauded.

There is a general desire for this concert to be repeated. We vote aye.

The Daily Constitution.

VOICE OF THE DEMOCRACY.

GOV. SMITH AT HOME.

COLUMBUS, July 18, 1872.

Editors Constitution: The Democrats of Muscogee held a large meeting here to-day to appoint delegates to the State Convention. Resolutions indorsing Governor Smith and instructing the delegates to support him were adopted by a hearty and unanimous vote.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN APPLING.

Editors Constitution: At a meeting of the citizens of Appling county, convened in Holmesville on the 15th instant, for the purpose of sending delegates to the Gubernatorial convention to be held in Atlanta on the 24th instant, and also to nominate delegates to a convention subsequently to convene in the 1st district of this State, to represent said district in Congress, said meeting was organized by calling to the chair Eason Doggett, Esq., and E. A. Montgomery to act as Secretary.

The object of the meeting was briefly stated by Colonel D. M. Roberts in a few pertinent and appropriate remarks, after which Colonel G. J. Holton moved that a committee of five be appointed by the Chair to select delegates to represent said county in said convention, which motion being unanimously adopted the Chair appointed E. D. Graham, G. J. Holton, Lewis Thomas, John Comas and David Tuten, who retired and after a brief absence returned, and through their chairman, Mr. E. D. Graham, submitted the following report, to-wit: As delegates to the Gubernatorial Convention, the names of Col. G. J. Holton and Seaborn Hall, Esq., and to the Congressional Convention the names of Col. D. M. Roberts and Isham Reddish, Esq., which report being unanimously adopted, the meeting adjourned.

EASON LEGGETT, Chairman.
E. A. MONTGOMERY, Secretary.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN BERRIEN COUNTY.

Editors Constitution: At a meeting held today in the Court House by the citizens of Berrien county, M. F. Morgan was called to the chair, and J. H. Kirby requested to act as secretary.

The object of the meeting was explained by Col. B. F. Whittington, and after explaining the object of the meeting, requested the chairman to appoint a committee of five to draft resolutions for the meeting.

Whereupon the chair appointed the following as said committee:

Col. B. F. Whittington, John M. Futch, John Studstill, James F. Goodman and W. H. Lastinger.

The committee retired, and after a short absence, returned and offered the following:

1. Resolved, That we adhere with determination and unabiding faith to the doctrine that governments derive their just powers solely from the consent of the governed.

2. That the foregoing doctrines were coeval with the formation of our true American system of government, and will be co-extensive with its existence, that it is our duty to maintain them, to labor for their vindication and ultimate triumph in every legal way.

3. That in the opinion of the citizens of Berrien county the unity and integrity of the Democratic party is an object of primary importance and desire, since the preservation of free institutions and popular government depend upon the maintainance of the principles of the party.

4. That we most cordially indorse the administration of our present Governor, J. M. Smith, recognizing in him a pure and unswerving Democrat, a true and honest man and an impartial and able officer.

5. That we recommend the names of H. T. Peeples, J. F. Goodman and John M. Futch as delegates to represent us in the Convention to assemble in Atlanta on the 24th inst., to nominate a candidate for Governor.

DADE COUNTY DEMOCRACY.

TRENTON, GA., July 16, 1872.

Editors Constitution: By call of the Executive Committee of Dade county, a meeting of the Democratic party was held to-day, in Trenton, to appoint delegates to the State Convention on the 24th instant.

On motion, Hon. E. D. Graham was called to the chair, and in a few pointed remarks explained the object of the meeting.

On motion, John S. Nethery was requested to act as Secretary, and James C. Taylor, Wm. I. Cole, Jos. Coleman, Larkin Payne, and T. J. Lumpkin were appointed a committee to draft resolutions, and, by their chairman, Dr. T. J. Lumpkin, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

1. Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting be requested to appoint four delegates to represent the Democratic party of this county in the State Democratic Convention, to be held at Atlanta on the 24th instant, to nominate a candidate for Governor and an electoral ticket.

2. In view of the fact that a convention will be called at an early day to nominate a candidate for Congress for this District, that the chairman also appoint four delegates to said convention, and that said delegates be authorized to represent us in such convention when called.

3. That we invite the Democratic party of Catoosa and Walker counties to meet us in convention on the second Tuesday in August at Crawfish Springs, in Walker county, to nominate a candidate for State Senator, and that this meeting appoint ten delegates to such convention; and that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the chairman of the Executive Committee in said counties.

4. Resolved, That while we send our delegates to the several conventions untrameled by instructions, it is our earnest desire that His Excellency Governor Smith may be reelected Governor; that our present gallant and patriotic Representative General P. M. Young may be returned to the 43d Congress, and that the Hon. W. H. Payne, of Catoosa, may be nominated for Senator from this District.

That the proceedings of this meeting be publish in THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, Rome Courier and Catoosa Courier.

Campaign Notes.

Mansfield, Ohio, has elected a Greeley Mayor.

Judge H. D. Twiggs has written a strong letter for Greeley.

Every Democratic journal on the Pacific coast has accepted the Baltimore ticket.

A leading Republican of Cincinnati, says Greeley will get as many Republicans in that State as Grant.

Senator Trumbull says "the chances of Greeley in the Northwest are better than Lincoln's in 1860."

Grant will not get two-thirds of the negro vote in Virginia. Sumner's speech is being circulated among them.

In North Carolina General Henry, Major Rollins and Chief Roberts, three influential Republicans have taken the stump for Greeley.

Wendell Phillips doubts Grant's re-election, and thinks Sumner quite as strong in Massachusetts at the present time as he was a year ago.

The Liberal Republicans of Fort Scott, Kansas, had an immense Greeley ratification meeting on the 18th. It was the largest gathering ever held there.

The Greeley Republicans at Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, count between four and five hundred votes, and there are not more than five Bourbon Democrats in the place.

A farmer in Monticello, Iowa, writing to a Chicago commission merchant, says: "This town gave three hundred majority for Grant; it will now give Greeley a majority."

Of the members of Mr. Lincoln's first administration, Vice-President Johnson Secretary Seward, Judge Chase, Secretary McCulloch, Montgomery Blair and Secretary Welles are all opposed to Grant's re-election.

James A. Parker and William O. Prime, colored, from Prince George county, Maryland, delegates to the National Renominating Convention at Philadelphia, have renounced their allegiance to Grant and come out for Greeley and Brown.

FOUNDED ON A ROCK!—The disappointed adventurers who have from time to time attempted to run their worthless potions against Drake's Plantation Bitters, vow that they cannot understand what foundation there is for its amazing popularity. The explanation is simple enough. The reputation of the world-renowned tonic is founded upon a rock, the rock of experience. All its ingredients are pure and wholesome. How, then, could tricksters and cheats expect to rival it with compounds of cheap drugs and refuse liquor, or with liquorless trash in a state of acetious fermentation? Of course the charlatans have come to grief. Their little game has failed. Their contempt for the sagacity of the community has been fitly punished. Meanwhile Plantation Bitters seem to be in a fair way of eventually superseding every other medicinal preparation included in the class to which it belongs. In every State and Territory of the Union it is, to-day, the accepted specific for nervous debility, dyspepsia, fever and ague, rheumatism, and all ailments involving a deficiency of vital power.

DECAY'S EFFACING FINGER will never mar the teeth that are brushed daily with Oderiferous Sozodont. It lends a floral fragrance to the breath as well as protects the teeth from corrosion and decomposition.

DON'T hawk, hawk, spit, spit, blow, blow, and disgust everybody with your Catarrh and its offensive odor, when Dr. Sage' Catarrh Remedy will speedily destroy all odor, arrest the discharge and cure you.

THE VITAL DRAIN.—It is necessary to the health of the body that its exhausted and refused particles should be carried off by the excretory organs, and it is equally necessary that the waste matter thus expelled should be replaced by new elements derived from digested and assimilated food. It is evident, therefore, that good digestion and perfect assimination are essential to bodily vigor; and it is because Hostetter's Stomach Bitters powerfully assist these processes, that it is regarded by the intelligent classes, whose opinions are founded on observation, as the only absolute specific for dispepsia and its attendant ills, at present known. When the system, either from constitutional causes, overwork, excess, anxiety, or actual disease, is in an unnaturally relaxed condition, something more than its exhausted particles passes through the pores. Vitality leaks through these ventages! Elements which should remain in the blood, and enrich it are evolved, and that fluid becomes then watery and incapable of removing the solids of the body as fast as they decay. The consequences are emaciation, debility, nervousness, loss of spirits, and a general, or perhaps a rapid, decline of all powers of life. It is in cases like this that the restorative properties of Hostetter's Bitters are most conspicuous. The first two or three doses sometimes produce a change in the feelings and aspect of the invalid that is perfectly astonishing, and by a persevering use of this superlative vegetable tonic and alterative, the vital drain is sure to be arrested, the strength reinstated, the flesh restored, the constitution reinforced, and the brain relieved of the cloud that obscured it.

BACHELORS' HAIR DYE.—This superb Hair Dye is the best in the world—perfectly harmless, reliable and instantaneous; no disappointment; no ridiculous tints or disagreeable odor. The genuine Wm. A. Batchelor's Hair Dye produces immediately a splendid black or natural brown, leaves the hair clean, soft, beautiful; does not contain a particle of lead or any injurious compound. Sold by all druggists. Factory, 16 BOND STREET, New York.

TIME and enlightened experience have shown that certain substances formerly used and relied on in medical practice, are unnecessary and dangerous; yet some of these substances have found their way into medical compounds. Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters, however, contain nothing injurious, being composed exclusively of vegetable substances from California. For all disorders of the liver, kidneys, bladder, skin, and digestive organs, and for purifying the blood, they are the most wonderful remedy known.

GEORGIA, Fulton County.

To the Superior Court of said county:

YOUR petitioner, Paul Jones, Senior, showeth that in due course of trade and for a valuable consideration, on the 19th day of December, 1871, by purchase from Jesse C. Kyle, he acquired title to a promissory note (here to the Court shown, for the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars, made by Amy H. Sells, W. A. S Rondeau and P. H Snook, payable to said Kyle, or bearer, dated February 13th, 1871, and due on or before the first day of January, 1872; and that at the same time he, by assignment from the said Kyle, acquired title to a mortgage deed, (here also to the Court shown) executed by said Amy H. Sells to said Kyle and his assigns, to secure the payment of said note, and bearing even date therewith; which mortgage deed covers and embraces all that tract or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the city of Atlanta, and being part of A. J. Orme's subdivision of block number one hundred and forty-six, in original lot number fifty-one, in the fourteenth district of originality Henry now Fulton county—said portion fronting north on East Harris street, two hundred and eighty-three feet and running back on Butler street two hundred and two feet, with all the rights, members and appurtenances to the said premises in anywise belonging.

Your petitioner avers that the condition of said mortgage deed is broken, that said note is wholly unpaid, and that the amount due thereon is eight thousand dollars, principal, besides lawful interest from maturity. He therefore prays that said mortgage may be foreclosed, and that the usual rule to that end be granted and served according to law.

L. E. BLECKLEY, Petitioner's Attorney.

The Star

Will be conducted, as heretofore, on an Independent Schedule, without being influenced by "fear, favor or affection." In politics we shall, as formerly, cooperate with the Democratic party, at the same time using every diligence to consolidate the Liberal Republican Movement, believing, as we do, that in the combination and consolidation of the Democrats and Liberals, lies the only political hope of the country, to be rescued from Military Tyranny and Radical Domination.

To our friends we appeal to assist us in thus extending our circulation, and point with pride to Our Record for the past seven years as a consistent, independent and newsy journal. While we have made a few mistakes, yet our old files show, and experience has vindicated the fact, that we have most always BEEN RIGHT in our political opinions and suggestions relative to the various important public questions that have come up since the war, upon which the South has been called to think or act. We can only add that we shall continue on the same schedule, relaxing no effort to give the latest, most reliable and fullest news attainable, not only upon political affairs, but all matters of public interest.

Very respectfully PUBLISHERS STAR.
